Consultation has begun on plans that will shape Wealden District over the next 22 years.

Exhibitions are being staged all over Wealden so local people have the opportunity to give their views on new homes, town centres, green spaces, transport links and job opportunities.

At each event councillors and planning experts from Wealden District Council will be on hand to answer questions and explain the recommendations in the Local Plan. Please drop in at the following venues and times:

Crowborough	Community Centre	Thursday 22 October	1.30pm to 6.30pm
Uckfield	Weald Hall, Civic Centre	Tuesday 27 October	2.00pm to 7.00pm
Hailsham	Civic Community Hall	Saturday 31 October	10.00am to 2.00pm
Wadhurst	Uplands Community Centre	Tuesday 3 November	2.00pm to 7.00pm
Heathfield	Youth Centre	Saturday 7 November	10.00am to 2.00pm
Hailsham	Civic Community Hall	Friday 13 November	2.00pm to 8.00pm
Polegate	Community Centre	Saturday 14 November	10.00am to 2.00pm

It's really important that you have your say, perhaps there are other recommendations you would like considered?

The consultation runs until Monday 30 November.

You can read the Wealden Local Plan: Issues, Options and Recommendations and take part in the consultation at: www.wealden.gov.uk/wealdenlocalplan

Copies of the document are available at the District Council's offices in Hailsham, town and parish council offices and local libraries.
